GENERAL ASSIGNMENT FOR BENEFIT OF CREDITORS OF CML METALS, CORP. UNDER UTAH CODE ANN. § 6-1-1 *ET SEQ.

Civil No. 160500464

I. GENERAL ASSIGNMENT

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, under Utah Code Ann. § 6-1-1, et seq., CML METALS, CORPORATION (“Assignor” or “CML”) formerly known as Palladon Iron Corporation, with its principal offices formerly located at 912 W. 1600 S. Suite 104, St. George, UT 84770 and its principal operations formerly in Cedar City, Iron County, Utah being indebted in the amounts and to those persons whose names appear on the list annexed as Exhibit A hereto, which debts it is unable to pay in full, and being desirous of making a fair distribution of all property and assets owned among all creditors who will consent to accept their proportionate share of Assignor’s estate herein, share and share alike.

NOW THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the premises, the Assignor has granted, sold and conveyed, set over, and assigned and do by these presents sell, convey, assign and set over unto Guidepoint Management LLC ("Assignee"), of 13601 W. McMillan Rd. #102, PMB 320, Boise, ID 83713, its successors and assigns, all property, real and personal, and all assets, of whatsoever kind and description and wherever located, other than that which is by law exempt from execution, belonging to Assignor, including, without in any way limiting the general and absolute assignment of all of Assignor's assets and property, the following:

All accounts receivable, inventory, furniture, fixtures, and equipment, all cash on hand or in the bank, general intangibles, stock, promissory notes, all rights under any contracts, all rights to any refunds, rebates, or credits, all equitable rights, all setoffs, defenses, counterclaims, and recoupments, and all choses in action belonging to Assignor, which assets are more specifically described and attested to on Exhibit B hereto.

(the "Assets").

The Assets specifically include all claims for refund or abatement of all excess taxes heretofore or hereafter assessed against or collected from the Assignor by the U.S. Treasury Department, the Utah State Tax Commission, and any other taxing authority. The Assignor agrees to sign and execute power of attorney or all other documents as required to enable said Assignee to file and prosecute, compromise and/or settle, all such claims before the Bureau of Internal Revenue, U.S. Treasury Department, and the Utah State Tax Commission, and any other taxing authority, and agrees to endorse any refund checks relating to the prior operations of said Assignor's business and to deliver such check to the Assignee.

The Assets are assigned subject to all valid liens, claims and encumbrances thereon, "AS IS" and "WHERE IS" and without warranty or representation whatsoever including, without limitation, the warranties of merchantability and/or fitness for any particular purpose whatsoever, provided however, that any warranties made by others for the benefit of the Assignor and any warranties made by others capable of being assigned by the Assignor are hereby assigned.

The Assignor hereby authorizes the forwarding of all of its mail by the U.S. Postal Service and any other delivery service as directed by the Assignee.

Assignor assigns all Assets, to have and to hold, to Assignee and its successors in trust for the benefit of all creditors of Assignor, provided however, that only those creditors who shall consent to and accept this assignment and receive, in full satisfaction of their allowed claim (as later determined by Assignee) shall have and take any benefit hereunder.

Assignee is hereby specially empowered to take possession of the Assets herein conveyed wherever same may be found. Further, "[A]ssignee may dispose of and sell all the estate assigned, real and personal, which the [Assignor] had at the time of the assignment, may sue for and recover in its own name everything belonging or appertaining to said estate, and generally do whatever the debtor might have done in the premises; but no sale of real estate belonging to said trust shall be made without notice published as in case of sales of real estate on execution, unless the court or judge shall otherwise order, and no such sales shall be valid until approved by the court or judge." Utah Code Ann. § 6-1-16.

II. POWER OF ATTORNEY

To accomplish the purposes of this assignment, Assignor hereby appoints Assignee its true and lawful attorney, irrevocable, with full power and authority to do all acts and things which may be necessary to carry out this assignment; to demand and recover from all persons all assets of the Estate; to sue for the recovery of such assets; to execute, acknowledge, and deliver all necessary deeds, instruments, and conveyances; and to appoint one or more attorneys under him to assist him in carrying out his duties hereunder. Further, on the date this assignment, the Assignee shall be deemed to be a representative of the Assignor with respect to all such potential or actual claims, cases, controversies, causes of action, etc., and may settle, compromise, prosecute, and/or recover the proceeds of such causes of action (if any) for and on behalf of the creditors. Assignor hereby authorizes Assignee to sign the name of Assignor to any check, draft, promissory note, or other instrument in writing that is payable to the order of Assignor, or to sign the name of Assignor to any instrument in writing, whenever and to the extent necessary to carry out the purpose of this assignment.

III. SAVINGS CLAUSE

Notwithstanding anything else herein, if any provision of this assignment causes or tends to have the effect of voiding the general assignment for the benefit of creditors within the meaning of Utah Code Ann. § 6-1-2, such provision is null and void and without effect, and the assignment hereunder shall remain valid, absolute, and continuing.

IV. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

Under Utah Code Ann. § 6-1-3, this assignment, upon execution, has been or will be “recorded in the office of the recorder of the county where the property assigned is located” and “[a]s soon as such instrument is recorded it shall be filed, with the inventory and list of creditors, in the office of the clerk of the district court of the county in which the property so assigned is located; as shall all subsequent papers connected with such proceedings.” Utah Code Ann. § 6-1-3.

The Assignor’s principal remaining liquid asset is its bank account held at the St. George, Utah branch of Zions Bank. Accordingly, the Assignor has recorded or will record this assignment in the Office of the Recorder for Washington County prior to filing. Additionally, Assignor hereby authorizes Assignee to close its Zions Bank account and transfer the balance in that account to Assignee’s own account. After recording, the Assignor will file this assignment in the District Court for the Fifth Judicial District, County of Washington, where the Court will have jurisdiction to hear all matters concerning the Assignor, its assets, and its creditors' claims.

Utah Code Ann. § 6-1-3.

Nevertheless, because the Assignor's former principal place of operations and former operating assets were in Cedar City, Iron County, Utah, out of an abundance of caution Assignor has recorded or will record this assignment in the Office of the Recorder for Iron County.

V. NOTICES TO CREDITORS AND DEADLINES

Under Utah Code Ann. § 6-1-5(2), the Assignee shall, as soon as practical after the receipt of this assignment, notify the creditors scheduled on Exhibit A of the assignment using the form of notice attached as Exhibit C hereto (the "Notice"), and furnish such creditors the form of proof of claim/acceptance of benefits, in the form attached as Exhibit D hereto (the "Proof of Claim Form"), to be completed by such creditors and returned to the Assignee within 3 months of the mailing of the Notice (the "Claims Bar Date"). Utah Code Ann. § 6-1-5(2). Only those creditors who return their completed Proof of Claim Form before the Claims Bar Date shall be entitled to receive any benefit hereunder.

Under Utah Code Ann. § 6-1-5(1), the Assignee will cause to be published in the Deseret News and The Spectrum newspaper to be published once a week for six weeks the following notice:

ANNOUNCEMENT OF GENERAL ASSIGNMENT FOR THE BENEFIT OF CREDITORS

AND NOTICE TO CREDITORS

Estate of CML Metals Corporation fka Palladon Iron Corporation

Utah Case No. 16 _____

[Assignee] has accepted and agreed to stand as Assignee of a general assignment for the benefit of creditors of the above-entitled estate under Utah Code Ann. § 6-1-1. Creditors of the estate are hereby notified to deliver or mail their written claims to the Assignee to the following address:

George Hofmann (10005)
Cohne Kinghorn, P.C.
111 East Broadway, 11th Floor
Salt Lake City, UT 84111

no later than [date], the claims bar date, which is three (3) months after the date of the first publication of this notice or be forever barred.

Published in the [newspapers] [dates], 2016.

VI. CLAIMS ADMINISTRATION

A. Claims Filing Procedure

Under Utah Code Ann. § 6-1-6, “[t]he claims of all creditors, clearly and distinctly stated and sworn to by the claimant, or by some person acquainted with the facts, shall be filed with the [A]ssignee within three months of the date of the [Notice].”

ANY CREDITOR WHO FAILS TO FILE ITS PROOF OF CLAIM FORM WITH THE ASSIGNEE ON OR BEFORE THE CLAIMS BAR DATE WILL BE FOREVER BARRED FROM PARTICIPATING IN THE DISTRIBUTION OR BENEFITS OF THE ASSIGNMENT AND WILL BE FURTHER BARRED BY PRINCIPLES OF RES JUDICATA OTHER EQUITABLE DOCTRINES FROM ASSERTING ITS CLAIM IN ANY OTHER PROCEEDING.

B. Assignee’s Report of Claims

Under Utah Code Ann. § 6-1-7, as soon as practicable after the Claims Bar Date, the Assignee “shall report and file with the clerk of the court a true and full list, under oath, of all such creditors of the assignor as shall have claimed to be such, with a statement of their claims, an affidavit of publication of notice, and a list of the creditors with their places of residence to whom notice has been sent by mail, and the date of mailing the same” (the “Claims Report”).
Utah Code Ann. § 6-1-7.

The Assignee will electronically file the Claims Report with the Court and is not required to serve it on all parties in interest, provided, however that the Assignee will provide notice by mail of the Claims Report to any interested party who has appeared in the Court and requested such notice.

C. Claims Objection and Resolution Procedure

Under Utah Code Ann. § 6-1-8, “[a]ny person interested may appear within one month after such report is filed and contest the claim or demand of any creditor by written exceptions thereto filed with the clerk” (the “Claims Objection Deadline”). The clerk of the Court “shall forthwith cause notice thereof to be given to the creditor, which shall be served as in case of a summons and returnable at a time to be named therein, not less than 10 nor more than 40 days.”

Id.

Any claim for which no objection is filed by the Claims Objection Deadline will be deemed allowed in the amount in the Claims Report, and the Court will not entertain any late-filed objections thereto, subject to any extension of the Claims Objection Deadline granted by the Court.

The Assignee, in the exercise of its business judgment and considering its role as Assignee of the Assets for the benefit of creditors, may object to any claim that (1) contains insufficient documentation or other evidence of the bona fides of the claim; (2) is speculative, contingent, unliquidated, or otherwise not subject to reasonable estimation or valuation; or (3) is unenforceable against the Assignor or the Assignor’s Assets for any reason under applicable law. The Assignee or any timely objecting party in interest, solely for the purpose of claims determination, stands in the shoes of the Assignor and shall have any and all defenses that were or could have been available to the Assignor.

In any proceeding to determine the validity of a claim, the claimant shall have the burden of proof to establish a prima facie case for the validity of its claim. The claimant shall be limited to presenting only evidence that was (a) included or referred to with specificity in its timely filed Proof of Claim Form; (b) subject to judicial notice; or (3) is necessary to refute the objection filed against the claim and could not have reasonably been anticipated to have been necessary to prove the prima facie validity of the claim at the time of filing. The objecting party shall have the burden of proof on all affirmative defenses.

The Court shall hold a hearing and “proceed to hear the proofs and allegations of the parties in the matter and render such judgment thereon as shall be just.” Utah Code Ann. § 6-1-8. In rendering such judgment, the Court may disallow, estimate, reduce, or subordinate, any claim in the exercise of its discretion. The Court’s determination of the allowance of any claim is final and non-appealable.

VII. DISTRIBUTIONS AND DISPOSAL OF ASSETS

A. Accounting for Assets and Security

Under Utah Code Ann. § 6-1-4, the Assignee will file with the Court “a true and full inventory and valuation” and “shall then enter into bonds to the state for the use of the creditors in double the amount of the inventory and valuation, with one or more sureties” To the best of Assignor’s knowledge and information, the approximate collectible value of the Assets is no more than $60,000. Accordingly, under Utah Code Ann. § 6-1-4, the Assignee shall enter into a bond to secure its performance in the amount of $120,000 as soon as practicable following this assignment. If, through the discovery of additional assets or facts, the approximate value of the Assets appears to be materially higher or lower than this estimate, the Assignee will increase or decrease the amount of this coverage in accordance with Utah Code Ann. § 6-1-4. The Assignee will file subsequent inventories only if additional substantial and material assets come into the Assignee's hands and provide additional security as required by the Court. Utah Code Ann. § 6-1-14.

B. Distribution Timing

Under Utah Code Ann. § 6-1-12, "[t]he [A]ssignee shall dispose of all personal property and divide the proceeds of the same among the creditors as they may be entitled thereto within six months from the date of the assignment, unless further time is given for good cause by the court"

C. Distribution Priority Scheme

The Assignee will distribute the assets as follows:

First, the Assignee may deduct, charge, or pay from any Assets or proceeds (or to reimburse itself with respect to) all sums that Assignee may at its option pay for the discharge of any lien on any property.

Second, the Assignee may pay all expenses of administration, including indemnification to himself for all expenses and claims of creditors of the Assignor and/or those claiming by, through, or under the Assignor. The Assignee may hire and pay professionals, including, without limitation attorneys, accountants, appraisers, auctioneers, and brokers, without prior authorization, to perform services for the administration. The administrative costs and expenses shall include, without limitation, (a) reasonable compensation as set forth in Utah Code Ann. § 75-3-718 to Assignee for its services on behalf of the Estate at the customary hourly rates of the Assignee for similar services, which rate currently is $250/hour; (b) reasonable compensation to the Assignee's professionals at their customary hourly rates for similar services or on such other reasonable basis as Assignee and such professional may agree; and (c) the direct payment or reimbursement of reasonable expenses, costs and disbursements of Assignee and its professionals reasonably incurred in performing services on behalf of the Assignee in the discharge of its duties. Allowance and payment of the professional fees, costs, expenses and disbursements of Assignee and its professionals are subject to the approval of Assignee and shall be subject to court approval to the extent required by the Court or to the extent Assignee desires to obtain such Court approval. The Assignee is authorized to charge, in addition to out-of-pocket expenses, a docketing charge of $2.00 per claim filed in this assignment and a storage charge of $18.00 per box of records stored for up to 24 months and a storage charge of $0.75 per box per month thereafter, provided however, that the Assignee shall not be required to maintain storage of the records of the Assignor for longer than 24 months from the date of this assignment.

Third, the Assignee may use any such proceeds or Assets to pay in full all taxes owing by the Assignor, whether or not any taxing authority has filed a claim. Utah Code Ann. § 6-1-9.

Fourth, the Assignee may use any such proceeds or Assets to pay the unpaid wages, salaries, or commissions, including vacation severance and sick leave pay earned by any individual entitled thereto.

Fifth, the Assignee thereafter may use any such proceeds or Assets, pro rata, to pay the unsecured creditors of the Assignor as their respective claims may exist, exclusive of interest accruing from the date of the assignment, attorneys' fees, exemplary damages, or court costs not already awarded by a final order of a court of competent jurisdiction as of the date of this Assignment. In the event that all debts and liabilities are paid in full, any funds of the Estate remaining shall be returned to Assignor.

D. Assignee's Power to Abandon Assets

The Assignee may abandon any asset he deems to be burdensome or of de minimis value without notice and without authorization of the Court.

VIII. MISCELLANEOUS

A. Tax Filings

Assignee shall have no obligation to file tax returns or other filings or respond to notices for any state or federal taxing authority for Assignor. Solely for tax purposes, the assignment shall be treated as a grantor trust for which Assignee is acting as trustee and for which the creditors are the beneficiaries. Neither this assignment nor any other document or action of the Assignor or Assignee is or shall be deemed to be tax advice to any creditor or any other person, and all such persons should consult their own tax advisor regarding the potential tax consequences of the assignment.

Without limiting the foregoing, the Assets specifically include all claims for refund or abatement of all excess taxes heretofore or hereafter assessed against or collected from Assignor by the U.S. Internal Revenue Service (“IRS”) to which Assignor would be entitled. Assignor agrees to sign and execute power of attorney or other documents as required to enable Assignee to file, prosecute, compromise and/or settle all such claims before the IRS and agrees to endorse any refund checks relating to the prior operations of said Assignor’s business and to deliver such check to the Assignee.

B. Authority to Make Assignment

The undersigned signatory on behalf of Assignor is a duly authorized representative of Assignor. All necessary corporate actions have been taken, and all necessary consents to this assignment were properly obtained prior under Utah law prior to making the assignment. If any defect is found in the authorization or consents under Utah law or any law, it shall have no effect on the absolute nature of the assignment, and all such defects may be cured nunc pro tunc without further approval or notice.

C. Litigation/Priority of Interest in Assets

Assignee is under no obligation to defend any claim or to appear or participate in any litigation involving Assignor. Any judgment obtained or execution made subsequent to the assignment is and shall be subordinated to the Assignee and the Assignee's obligation to distribute the proceeds of the Assets pro rata to holders of allowed claims as provided under Utah Code Ann. § 6-1-10. The subsequent making or perfection of a security interest against the Assets by any creditor shall be of lesser priority to the Assignor's interest in the Assets.

IX. ACCEPTANCE OF ASSIGNMENT

The undersigned Assignor herein, by these presents agrees in consideration of the premises herein and in consideration of the promise on the part of the Assignee named herein to faithfully execute and perform this assignment as required by Utah law, specifically, Utah Code Ann. § 6-1-1 through § 6-1-20, inclusive. In further consideration of the acceptance, it is understood that no liability exists, express or implied, as to the Assignee or any affiliate, officer, director, shareholder or any other entity, for any obligation of the Assignor except as any written guaranty signed by the party to be charged and that no such affiliate, officer, director, shareholder or any other entity assumes any such obligation by the making of this assignment. Assignor, in further consideration of Assignee's acceptance of this assignment, agrees to hold Assignee, his successors and assignees, harmless from any and all liability for damages from his faithful execution of such duties.

The invalidity of any part of this said agreement and conveyance shall operate only to vitiate that portion, and only that portion which is invalid, it being expressly declared by these presents and at this time that each sentence, portion of a sentence, and paragraph herein is separable and a unit capable of standing alone, and the striking out of any such portion of sentences, sentence and paragraph shall not operate to vitiate the instrument but such instrument with the omissions of said portions shall be and the same is intended to be the contract and conveyance of the parties.

for the Benefit of Creditors of

CML METALS CORPORATION,

Assignor.

NOTICE OF GENERAL ASSIGNMENT FOR BENEFIT OF CREDITORS OF CML METALS, CORP. AND
DEADLINE FOR SUBMITTING CLAIMS

Civil No. _____

TO ALL CREDITORS OF CML METALS, CORPORATION AND OTHER PARTIES IN INTEREST:

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on August ___, 2016, CML Metals, Corporation (“CML”), a Utah corporation, as assignor, made a General Assignment for the Benefit of Creditors (the “Assignment”) to Guidepoint Management LLC of 13601 W. McMillan Rd. #102, PMB 320, Boise, ID 83713 (the “Assignee”), as assignee, pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 6-1-1 through § 6-1-20, inclusive.

With the exception of the relationship created by the Assignment, CML and Assignee have no affiliation or prior relationship with each other.

Pursuant to the Assignment, CML transferred ownership of all of its rights in tangible and intangible assets (collectively, the “Assets”) to the Assignee for liquidation and distribution for the benefit of its creditors. The Assignee will liquidate the Assets and distribute the net liquidation proceeds to creditors of CML who timely submit claims as instructed below.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE that all entities asserting any claim against CML must timely submit a proof of claim with all proper supporting documentation to the addressee listed below no later than _____, 2016 (the "Claims Bar Date"). A proof of claim form is enclosed with this Notice.

Under Utah Code Ann. § 6-1-6, "[t]he claims of all creditors, clearly and distinctly stated and sworn to by the claimant, or by some person acquainted with the facts . . . " and must include all evidence that the claimant would submit in support of its claim if the claim were objected to by another party in interest.

Claims must be sent by United States Postal Service or email as follows:
